

A NEW DAY

A news letter of the Evangelical Church "Smirna", Lviv, Ukraine. #6, October – November 2007

Church Smirna grows in c. Lviv. In October sister Galina Polyakova wanted to become a member of our church, because of moving to a permanent place of dwelling to c. Lviv, originally she is from c. Kovel'. For today she is very active in church life, and shares her own poetry at Sunday meetings.

Pastor Igor, because of invitation one of Slavic churches, is in the United States of America. For today he visited churches in cities Sacramento, Portland, Vancouver. In the end of November he plans return to Ukraine.

On October, 18 in one of schools of Lviv we did a demonstration model of AWANA club. Kids got very excited and took part in sporting games and filled questionnaires for future contact. For today a club has a difficulty with a meeting place.

We have a prayer request for this problem.

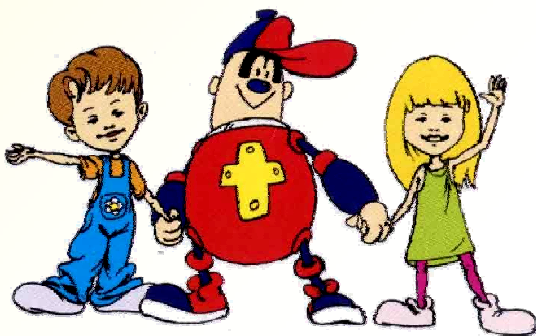

On October, 19 by an association Mission of Salvation organized a children celebration program in a boarding school Dream .Kids with outstanding interest listened songs and stories from the Bible and about main hero - Jesus Christ. They expressed a desire stay in a correspondence and to study in a Bible school on a correspondence. And they invited to come again. A children celebration went of within the framework of child's evangelistic project Super book. After the event we gave away children s Christian magazines Stezinka given by a mission. Light on the east . At the celebration we had about 100 children.

Festive program boarding-school «Dream»

A hosts of the program Vasily and Natalia sang songs, told about Bible as Super book there you can find advices are on all of cases of life.

Kids were not only listeners but also by the participants of the festive program, sang, played games, and answered a question.

In the end of the holiday Baran Vasily distributes magazines Stezina and socializes with children.

Kids from boarding-school read magazines with fascination. That had the special value that these magazines are not general, not taken in a library, but personally their.

Kids didn't want us to leave and they wanted to know, when we will come again? Saying goodbye said: see you soon.
